WOMEN IN BLACK

SYMPOSIUM: ONLY IN AMERICA, Thursday, 6/19 at 7:30 p.m.

This probing documentary explores the role of religious faith in Joseph Lieberman's campaign to become the first Jewish Vice President and how his Jewish identity informs his politics (dir. Ron Frank).

Following the screening Mark Halperin, political director for ABC News, will lead a discussion on faith in politics, the outcome of the 2000 election and a preview of Campaign 2004.

Thursday 6/19 at 4:30 p.m., MY ARCHITECT

The illegitimate son of famed architect Louis I. Kahn travels the world looking for answers to his father's complex and mysterious life and discovers just how revolutionary his father was (dir. Nathaniel Kahn).

LONG SHADOWS: STORIES FROM A JEWISH HOME, Friday, 6/20 at 11:30 a.m.

Holocaust survivors in an Australian nursing home struggle with the challenges of aging and the resurgence of dark memories that have remained dormant since World War II (dir. Kate Hampel).

Followed by: EVA

Why did Eva, a Yugoslav war hero now retired in Israel, make a decision to choose her lover over her child? (dir. Avner Faingulerent and Macabib Abramzon).

Friday 6/20 at noon & Saturday 6/21 at 10:30 a.m., SHORTS PROGRAM II: SOMEWHERE OUT THERE

WELCOME. A DOCU-JOURNEY OF IMPRESSIONS (dir. Almudena Carracedo)

Tijuana: bordertown mosaic, city of music, city of death, Babylon of hope.

AT THE BORDER (dir. Patty Elahi)

Children at an Afghan refugee camp struggle to maintain youthful innocence.

LIFE AS IT IS (PROSTOZHIZN) (dir. Marina Razbezhkina)

An older Russian woman finds beauty in the mundane.

HIDE YOUR WORDS (HARFHAYAT RA PENHAN KON) (dir. Behnam Behzadi)

Two Iranian sisters dream of continuing their education despite their imminent arranged marriages.

LAST DANCE, Friday 6/20 at 9:00 p.m.

Witness the drama before the curtain rises as Where the Wild Things Are author and illustrator Maurice Sendak embarks on a creative journey with the improvisational dance collective Pilobolus to craft a dance piece inspired by the real stories of Jewish children during the Holocaust (dir. Mirra Bank).

Saturday 6/21 at 3:00 p.m., WOMEN IN BLACK

What happens when Women in Black, a multinational peace organization, fights for peace in the gray areas of the Israeli/Palestinian conflict (dir. Donna Baillie).

Playing with: MOMENTS, ISRAEL 2002

This collection of shorts reveals just how complex life is in Israel during the Israeli/Palestinian conflict, taking care not to choose sides (various directors).
